

Torino MOVES

Success of Italian teams

Four home teams out of five won their matches today: Italy «A» against Monaco 3,5:0,5, Italy «B» composed of young talented players, all of them under 20, did it even with perfect score against China Taipei and Italy «C», which is sponsored by local authorities from Torino Province, conceded just half a point to Haiti. As for the women, Italy «A» took all three points, while Italy «B» was not able to put some resistance against a very strong Dutch team. Among the favorites, perfect scores for Russia, Netherlands, Bulgaria, Spain, England, Germany, Romania and Georgia among others. The surprise of the day is the victory from Morocco - 3:1 against India. As for the actual champions from Ukraine, they were obliged to concede half a point on board number one, where Ivanchuk didn't manage to outplay Sergey Krilov, the actual World Champion for blind players.

India shell shocked in inaugural round

The much hype about being second seed and the possibility of challenging the Russians and Ukrainians for the gold ended in a shell shock for Indians who were outplayed by Morocco by 3 1 margin in the opening round. India had rested the top two tables and with the rookie D. P. Singh on table 4. This unexpected move has led to trouble when the top 2 boards ended in a draw Harikrishna was unable to attain a breakthrough against GM hischem Hamdochi while Surya sekar ganguly with white pieces was held to a draw by Elbilja Jacques. Karim Ismael conducted an enterprising attack against GM Sandipan Chanda and won panache while FM Arbouche Muhamed put it across the rookie Singh D P.

35 teams started off with the perfect score by sweeping on all four boards Russia Netherlands Bulgaria Spain Germany Romania Georgia Poland Greece Denmark Iceland Croatia Turkey Philippines Slovakia Vietnam Lithuania Latvia Bangladesh were among the teams that had a good day.

Ukraine and England dropped a valuable half point against IBCA and UAE respectively GM Conquest Stuart conceded a draw against Abdul majid while Krylov Sergey held on - GM Ivanchuk Vasily to a draw. USA just managed to get the better of New Zea land when the top board grandmasters highly rated GM Onischuk Alexander drew IM Ker Anthony while GM Ibragimov Ildar was held to a draw by - IM Garbett Paul.

USA struggled and India were shocked other seeded teams like england, Ukraine has dropped valuable half point. Success in Olympiad is relied on the momentum gained in initial rounds and the winning margin against inexperienced teams. British Grandmaster Nigel short said It is a long tournament with 13 rounds but now India has their task cut out. Referring back to the 1994 chess Olympiad at Moscow Nigel said We had a poor start but in the end managed to pull ourself through to the first table. If it was 11 rounds as proposed for next Olympiad at Dresden it would be an uphill task for any team dropping off 3 points in the opening round.

The women's section the seeds prevailed winning all three boards except Ukraine who conceded a draw WIM Zsiltzova-Lisenko Lubov held - WGM Zhukova Natalia to a draw while china, India Hungary, USA, Italy, Armenia and Bulgaria had facile wins. Germany dropped a half a point when Cua Sherily drew - WGM Juergens Vera in a crucial match.

The Russian teams made a brilliant start and they have a formidable lineup in both men's and women's team India's debacle in the inaugural round is an costly mistake and only their performance in the next 3 rounds will spell it out.

Olympiad review

A rejuvenated Russian team starts the campaign today for reclaiming their hold on the chess Olympiad crown. Led by classical world champion Vladimir Kramnik, Russians are top seed and the favourites for the championship title. GM Svidler Peter 2743, GM Grischuk Alexander 2719, GM Morozevich Alexander 2730, GM Bareev Evgeny 2701 and GM Rublevskiy Sergey 2687 mark the impressive lineup. The Russians are in strength and their players are in form. For years India has remained among the also-rans in the Chess Olympiad. The biennial event, however, with the emergence of Sasikiran and Harikrishna at the pinnacle of chess world rankings, this event promises to be different since the second-seeded India is a firm favourite for a medal in the open section and boasts of the strongest lineup.

Seeded second, the Indian team is spearheaded by Viswanathan Anand, with Sasikiran, Pentala Harikrishna, Surya Sekar Ganguly, Sandipan Chandra and the surprise winner of the National Championship. The chess Olympiad is not decided by the teams' individual results, barring a 4-0 whitewash, but by the winning margin against weaker teams.

"Every game is important and we cannot afford any let-ups," was grandmaster P. Hari Krishna's put it. "Last time we were a bit tired towards the end and did not score as much as we should have," he said. The two rest days should be the key for the title aspirants where their star players can be wrestled, the total rounds is 13.

Russia, dethroned by Ukraine in 2004, will have the services of Vladimir Kramnik, Peter Svidler, GM Grischuk Alexander 2719, GM Morozevich Alexander 2730, GM Bareev Evgeny 2701, GM Rublevskiy Sergey 2687. The Russians are back in strength and Ukraine will have an uphill task of defending their title in the absence of the 2001 World Champion Ruslan Ponomarev. Similarly, Bulgaria will be without World Champion Veselin Topalov. Third seed Armenia shows promise and will be headed by World Cup winner Levon Aronian, the second strongest player in the event that has attracted 1243 players from 140 nations including 253 Grandmasters and 179 International Masters. UAE will face England on the opening round while Russia will face Kazakhstan and surprisingly former world champion Kasimdzhanov Rostam.
